

Emergency organization and follow-up after the « NICE » terrorist attack July 2016

Ophélie NACHON, Morgane GINDT,
Michèle BATTISTA & Florence ASKENAZY

Children Hospital Location

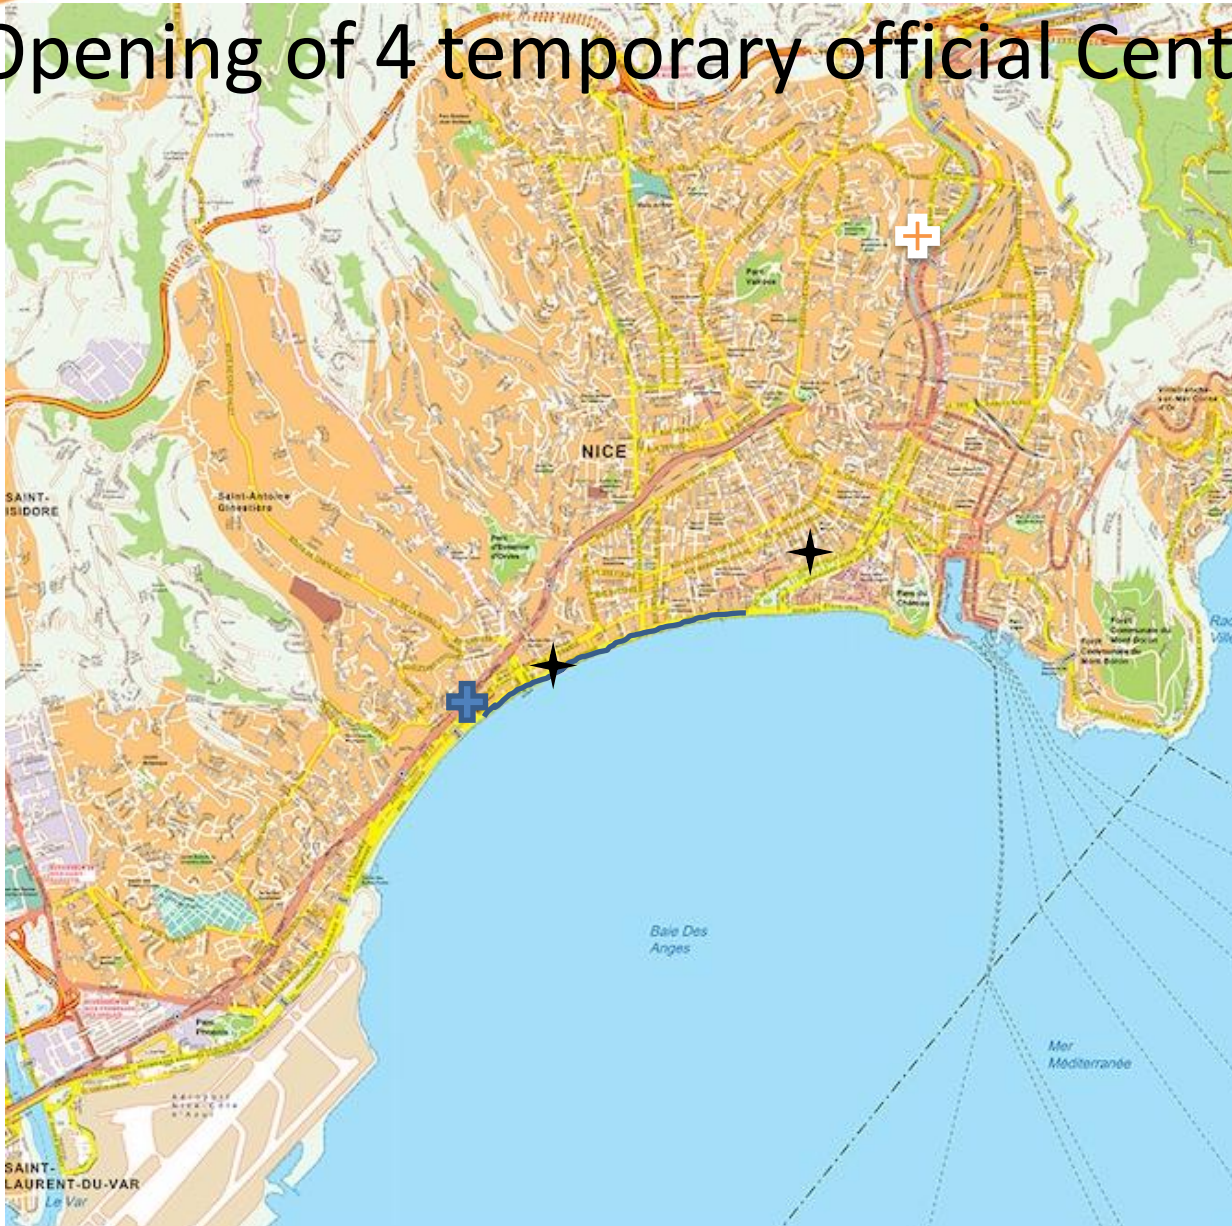

Phase 1: A truck Terror Attack

- Surprise & Emergency Responses
 - Public Rush to emergency in Lenval
 - Medical Crisis plan
 - « Plan Blanc »
 - « Cellules d'Urgence Médico-Psychologiques » CUMP
 - Emergency response
 - Information
 - Prevention
 - Inventory

18Hours later: Creation of CUMP « Pédiatriques » : specially dedicated to children

Opening of 4 temporary official Centers

Phase 2: In the pediatric hospital

- Open psychological interview
 - Team work (2-3 Mental health care professional with group)
 - Hospital professional
 - Volunteers
 - Minimum 1 MD in each group
 - Room and material adapted to children
 - From 8.00am to 10.00pm
 - Maximum 4 hours in a row
 - Head Nurse : organized the switches
- Secretary and Social workers
 - Counting and informing families
- Entrance Security team

Phase 2: difficulties

- Volunteers flood
- Lack of specific trauma formation
- Lack of coordination (in non hospital center)
- Lack of therapeutic recommandation in children
- Lack of clear emergency procedure in French
- Vulnerability in hospital workers ?
- Usual work still on going...

Phase 3: T + 5 months

- EPRUS (3 professionals per hospital + 1 coordinator)
 - French sanitary reserve
 - Specially dedicated to « first medical consultation »
 - To support local team
 - Staying from one week to 3 weeks
 - Open from 9.00am to 6.00pm

Phase 3: difficulties

- Coordination with local team
- Administration pocedures transmission
- Find extra rooms for consultations
- Orientation to local network
- Lack of specific tools for evaluation in French

Phase 4: since January 2017 (uptade 2019)

- CE2P creation:
Pediatric center to assess Psychotraumas
Initially composed by
 - 1 Child an Adolescent Psychiatrist (2,5 full time)
 - 1 Clinical psychologist (part time) (1 full time)
 - 1 Neuropsycholgist (part time) (0,8 full time)
 - Psychomotrician (0,5 full time)
 - 1 Post doctoral fellow (1 Resercher)
 - 1 Secretary
 - 1 Nurse (part time)
 - 1 social worker (part time)
- More than 3573 consultations with new calls every weeks
(updated january 2019)
- Priority requested team in pediatric CUMP

Personnal recommandations

- Have a dedicated phone number or website
- Be minimum 2 professionals facing a group or family
- Work with child specialist and child material
- Psychotrauma training
- Make a list of trained volunteers before
- Make a list of trained specialist for follow up
- Work maximum 2/3 days per week on the same event
- Team meeting every day !
- Supervision after each « session »
- Think PREVENTION

MERCI